O S N A B R U G, April 27.

SIX Thousand French Troops arrived the 24th Instant at Munster. The same Day the Prussians retired hastily from Lipstadt and Rittberg, and for want of Horses carried off but one Piece of Cannon from the last mentioned Place; but they took Hostages for the Remainder of the Contributions demanded of the County of Rittberg: The Sum amounted to 10,000 Crowns, which was carried to them the next Day, at Bielefeld. As the French are at their Heels, they may possibly make them restore the Money. The Count de St. Germain entered Lipstadt the 24th, at Three in the Afternoon. The same Day a Detachment of Fischar's Hussars took Possession of the County of Linggen, in the Name of the Empress Queen: This Country, which is inclosed within the Bishoprick of Munster, belongs to the King of Prussia. The same Detachment entered the County of Teckleburgh Yesterday.

Dresden, April 28. The King of Prussia hath given the strongest Evidence of his martial Abilities by the Plan he hath formed for attacking the Austrians in Bohemia on all Sides; having ordered his whole Army in Saxony, Misnic, Lusatia, and Silesia, to enter Bohemia in four opposite Places at one and the same Time. The first Body, or Grand Army is under his own Command, attended by Marshal Keith; the Second by Prince Maurice of Dessau; the Third by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick-Bevern; and the Fourth by Marshal Schwerin. The King hath ordered each of the three last Bodies to penetrate as far as they can into the Heart of Bohemia, that by the most expeditious Motions the Dispositions of the Austrians may be every where disconcerted, and the Union of their respective Bodies into one grand Army be entirely prevented.

His Majesty was at Cotta when he received a Courier from the Prince of Brunswick-Bevern. He had no sooner read his Dispatch, than, turning to his Regiment of Guards, "Look ye, my Boys (said the King) we have had a happy Beginning; the Prince of Bevern has beat the Austrians at Reichenberg, which, with the Blessing of God, is an Omen of greater Success."

Frankfort, April 29. We are assured that some of the Swiss Regiments in the Service of France have plainly refused to pass the Rhine and act against the King of Prussia.

L O N D O N, May 12.

From the King's Head Quarters at Linay, in Bohemia, April 24.

His Highness the Duke of Bevern having marched the 20th, at the Head of a Body of the Army which was in Lusatia, from the Quarters of Cantonment near Zittau, possessed themselves immediately, without the Loss of a single Man, of the first Post of Bohemia, at Krottaw and Gränfenstein, drove away the Enemy the same Day from Kratzzen, and marched towards Machendorf, near Reichenberg. The same Morning Putkammer's Hussars, commanded by their Colonel, and by Major Schenfeld, routed some Hundreds of the Enemy's Cuirassiers, commanded by Prince Lichtenstein, who were posted before Kohlig, and took Prisoners, 1 Captain, 2 Subalterns, and above 60 Horses; the Rest were intirely dispersed, and scarcely able to rally near Kratzzen. The Night coming on, obliged the Troops to remain in the open Air till the next Morning. The 21st, at Break of Day, our Troops marched in two Columns by Habendorf towards the Enemy's Army, posted near Reichenberg, and commanded by General Count Konigseg, and 28,000 strong. As soon as the Lines were formed, they advanced towards the Enemy's Cavalry, which was ranged in three Lines, of about 30 Squadrons. The two Wings were sustained by the Infantry, which was posted among felled Trees and Entrenchments. They immediately cannonaded the Enemy's Cavalry, who received it bravely, having on their Right a Village, and on their Left a Wood, where they had entrenched themselves with felled Trees and Pits. But the Duke of Bevern having caused 15 Squadrons of Dragoons of the second Line to advance, and ordered the Wood on our Right to be attacked at the same Time by the Battalions of Grenadiers of Kahliden and Moellendorff, and by the Regiment of the Prince of Prussia, who cleared all the felled Trees and Entrenchments there, our Dragoons, who had by this Means their Flanks covered, intirely routed the Enemy's Cavalry. The Generals Normann, Katt, and the Prince of Wurtemberg, signalized themselves extremely on this Occasion.

Col. Putkammer, and Major Schenfeld, with their Hussars, have likewise particularly distinguished themselves by giving the Horse Grenadiers a very warm Reception; notwithstanding the Enemy's Artillery took them in Flank. Lieut. Gen. Lestewitz, at the same Time attacked, with our Left Wing, the Redoubts that covered Reichenberg. Tho' there were many Defiles of rising Ground to pass, which were all occupied by the Enemy, yet the Regiment of Darmstadt forced the Redoubt, and put to Flight and pursued the Enemy, after some Discharges of their Artillery and Small-arms, from one Eminence to another, for the Distance of a Mile, as far as Rochlitz and Dorffel. The Loss of the Enemy amounts, as far as we can learn at present, to 1000 killed and wounded. We have made about 20 Officers, and 400 Soldiers, Prisoners, and have taken 3 Standards. Cannon and Ammunition Waggon are said to have been found among the felled Trees and Entrenchments, but the Departure of the Courier prevents our giving an exact List of them at this present Moment. General Porporati is supposed to have been killed, because some Letters directed to him have been found upon the Field of Battle. The Action began at Half an Hour after six o'Clock, and continued till eleven. On our Side there were 7 Subalterns, and about 100 Men killed; General Normann, Major de Mellin, of the Regiment of Amstel, Col. Lettow of D'Armstadt, Majors de Platen, de Normann, and de Beyern, of Wurtemberg, the Captains de Normann, and de Putkammer, of Amstel, 7 Subalterns, and 150 Men, were wounded. The Officers and private Men equally deserve the highest Commendations. His Highness the Duke of Bevern in particular, who had before distinguished himself in so signal a Manner in former Campaigns, and last Year at the Battle of Lowoffez, in this Action gave fresh Proofs of that Skill and Courage, which will transmit his Name to Posterity.

By Letters from Petersburg, we are informed, that the British Minister at that Court, has conferred several Times with the Grand Chancellor, M. Bestucheff, upon the present Posture of Affairs, with Respect to the Rupture in the Empire, and the March of the Russian Troops to the Assistance of the Queen of Hungary, and the said Minister has received strong Assurances, that it was not the Design of her Russian Majesty to act any Thing against the Territories of his Britannic Majesty, being firmly resolved to preserve the present subsisting Treaty of Amity, and Commerce, between Great-Britain and Russia. In the mean while the Forage and Stores for the Use of General Apraxin's Troops, are not got ready, so that it was uncertain when he would be in a Condition to proceed for Bohemia.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, May 10.

"Our Artificers in our Dock-yard are very closely employed, and work with the utmost Alacrity on the Equipment of a very large Fleet of the Line, but their Destination is not known.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, dated April 18.

"Thursday the Tartar sailed from Spithead; and on Friday Morning at Daylight, saw a Sail off Portland, which she gave Chase to, and by Twelve came up with her: She is a Privateer called the Duke de Guilder, from St. Maloes, upwards of 600 Tons, carrying 24 Nine-Pounders on one Deck, 2 Four-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck, each Gun 300 lb. heavier than the Tartar's. Her Tops are all full of Swivels; her Quarters barricadoed with Cork, Hoop-Sticks, and Junk, to defend her People from the Small-Arms. A very hot Engagement for two Hours within Musket-Shot. Her Complement of Men 300; when taken 260. She has been on her Cruise near six Weeks, in and out, and has taken four Prizes; one the Blakeney Privateer, the other three small ones: She had just carried in one, and came out but the Day before. She came into the Harbour Yesterday Afternoon, about Three o'Clock, with her Main-mast, Mizzen-mast, and Fore-top-gallant-mast carried away. On board the Tartar were killed one Midshipman, and two Foremast-men by one Shot, and a Marine by a Musket-Shot. It is thought that the French had near Fifty killed and wounded.

God be thanked, the Fleet is now quite gone; but not till Saturday, between Five and Six, when it was then out of Sight. Wind now about South.

Yesterday a Letter came from the Berwick, of their taking a very rich Prize; she is carried into Gibraltar and sold. The Foremast Men will have Ten Pounds each."

B O S T O N, June 27.

Capt. Capt. Trefery, from Halifax, we are informed, that the Huzza Privateer, Capt. Phips, of that Place, had brought in a large French Schooner, bound from the West-Indies to Canada, but had been into Louisburg; and by her it was learned, that seven Men of War were in that Harbour, with some Merchant Ships.

N E W - Y O R K, July 4.

Monday last the Embargo which continued in this Port for some Months past, was taken off the Shipping in this Port, in general.

We hear from Goshen, that a Woman in that Neighbourhood, was on Monday the 20th Instant, kill'd by Lightning, as she was putting her Child in the Cradle.—Her Husband was also stricken with the Flash, and continued insensible on the Floor for some Minutes, but recovered and does well.—The Child received no other Damage, than a small Bruise by the Fall out of its Mother's Arms.

Friday last arrived here, a large Prize Ship called the Conception de Ignatio D'Iollian, Laurauneo Ghigino, bound from Merfaiilles to Cape-François, and was taken off Monte Christo, the 12th of June, by the Privateer Snow Revenge, Capt. Koffler, and Snow Hornet, Capt. Spelling, both of this Port, and came in under the Command of Alexander Campbell, and Thomas Quill.—She is accounted the largest Ship brought into this Harbour since the War, being upwards of 400 Tons Burthen, mounting 22 Carriage Guns, and had 60 Hands; and was formerly the Warren Frigate out of England. Her Lading consists of Wine, Oil, Dry-Goods, &c. She stood no Engagement.—They left the two Privateers off Isabella-Bay, the 13th of June, cruising for two other large Ships which this Prize had spoke to two Days before she was taken, also bound to the Cape.

On the 25th of May, Captain Spelling in the Hornet, off Port Dauphin, on Hispaniola, fell in with a large French Ship of 26 Guns, supposed to have at least 140 Men on board; and engaged her from Seven at Night till near One in the Morning, in which he discharged 36 Broad-sides, besides Swivels and Small-Arms, and disabled the Enemy's Vessel so much, that she haul'd off about Two; the Privateer at the same Time was rendered unable to pursue her, and had two Men kill'd kill'd in the Engagement, James M'Allister shot through the Heart by a Six Pounder, and one Richard Jones, kill'd by a Swivel Gun which a Ball struck against in its Course.

The Day before, being the 24th of May, Capt. Koffler also came a-crois a large French Ship, too tough for him, tho't to be the aforementioned, and after exchanging three or four Broad-sides, left her.

By the last Mail from Albany, we learn, That on the 25th of June, they received an Account from Still-water, that two transient Persons, who had some Concerns with the Connecticut Forces, on their Way to Fort-Edward, were captivated by about sixteen French Indians, at a Place called Scorticoke-Landing, about Mid-way, from Half-moon to Still-water.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 16.
"Yesterday the York of 60 Guns, brought in three French Transports bound to America."

We hear from Albany, that a French Prisoner who was taken near Crown-Point, by some Mohawks, on Sunday, the 19th of June, was brought to that Place, on Saturday, the 25th following, and relates, That the Garrison of Crown-Point consisted of only 200 Men; that Ticonderoga was garrisoned by three Battalions of Regulars, a few Canadians and Indians; that at both Places they were greatly distressed for Want of Provisions; but were making great Additions to their Works at Ticonderoga; that General Montcalm was encamp'd at Montreal, where he intended to remain, till he was informed of the Motions of the English Army."

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated May 31.

"By an Expreis from St. Eustatia, we have certain Advice, that the French Squadron at Martinico consists of one Ship of 74 Guns, one of 66, three of 64, one of 40, three of 36, one of 16, and one of 12. They have a new General arrived there from France. M. Bompar their late General, is to take the Command of the Squadron, and has accordingly hoisted his Flag, which gives us some Reason to apprehend they have a Design on some of our Islands. There is also three large Ships arrived there with a Number of Soldiers on board."

A Passenger that came in Capt. Finglas, who arrived here the second Instant, informs us, That while he was at Plymouth, one of his Majesty's Ships came in there from a Cruise, and that an Officer of Marines belonging to said Ship acquainted him, That some Days before they arrived, about 200 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly, they fell in with sixteen French Men of War of the Line, having two Flags, and a great Number of Transports under Convoy.

Saturday last Captain Fry arrived here in 17 Days from Halifax, and brings a Confirmation of 7 French Men of War being in the Harbour of Louisburg, and that by a Letter found on board a French Schooner, carried into Halifax, eight more, with a Number of Soldiers were daily expected at Cape-Breton, from Old-France.

The same Day also, Capt. Reay, of Connecticut, arrived here in 18 Days from St. Kitts, and reports, That the Privateer Brig Oliver Cromwell, Capt. Read, of that Island, had taken and carried into that Place, a French Privateer Snow, the best belonging to Martinico, or all the French West-Indies.

CUSTOM HOUSE, NEW-YORK, July 4.

Enter'd Inwards, One Sloop.

Cleav'd Out, 41 Sloops; 13 Schooners; 1 Biler; 6 Brigantines; 4 Snows; and, 2 Ships. In all 67.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 24.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Loudoun, dated June 12.

"Lieutenant Baker, of the Virginia Regiment, with five Soldiers, and 15 Cherokee Indians, who were sent out on a Scout towards Fort Duquesne about the 20th of last Month, are returned back to Fort Cumberland with five Scalps, and one French Officer, Prisoner.—They took two other French Officers Prisoners; but one of them being wounded, and unable to march, the Indians immediately killed him, as also the other soon after, contrary to the Entreaties of Lieutenant Baker, who, with much Difficulty, saved the Prisoner mentioned from sharing the like Fate. This the Indians did in Revenge for the Death of the brave SWALLOW Warrior, who was killed in the Skirmish, and for the Wounds of his Son, who they brought from the Field of Battle (on the Head of Turtle Creek, within 20 Miles of Fort Duquesne) on their Shoulders, without having a Morfel of Provisions to sustain Nature the whole Way.—Our Party would have taken them all (viz. Ten Frenchmen, three of them Officers) had not the Swallow been killed, which prevented the Indians from pursuing their Game.—Those French parted with 50 Shawanese the Day before, returning to their Towns from War. The Officer taken gives his own Name, together with the Commandant's on the Ohio, and the two Officers killed, as follows.

Delignery, Knight of the Royal and Military Order of St. Louis, Captain of a detached Company from the Marine, Commander of Fort Duquesne and its Dependencies.—Lafolais, Ensign of Foot. Killed.—St. Ours, Ensign in Second. Killed.—Velestre, Ensign in Second. Prisoner.

He says, that the Garrison of Fort Duquesne consists of 600 French and 200 Indians who are frequently sent out in scouting Parties to harrafs our Frontiers, and make Discoveries.—Capain Spott-wood, with 10 Soldiers and 20 Indians, who went out at the same Time with Lieutenant Baker, but to a different Place, is not yet returned, but hourly expected."

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.

Yesterday the Privateer Spry, Capt. Bowne, of this Port, came up to Town, after an unsuccessful Cruise, having taken only a small Privateer, which he sent to Barbados, and being concerned in the Taking of two Schooners. By him we learn that the French Men of War which were lately on the Coast of Guiney, were also got into Martinico, but in a very sickly Condition.

By the Captains Snead and Tillet, who left Plymouth the 16th of May, we are informed, That the Day before they sailed the Unicorn, a 20 Gun Ship, brought into Plymouth two fine French Privateers, one of 26, and the other of 16 Guns, after a bloody Engagement, in which her brave Commander was killed, and a Number of Hands on both Sides.

And before they left that Port, they were informed that a very large Fleet sailed from Brest the Beginning of May. This Advice was said to be brought by the Master of a Cartel Ship from Brest, who swore to the Sailing of such a Fleet, and that he was detained for three Days after they sailed.

By Captain Joy, from South-Carolina, there is Advice of the Garland Man of War, Captain Arbuthnot, being late arrived there, with the Transports from this Place, and Hampton, in Virginia.

Last Night arrived here Captain Rankin from Cork, which he left the Eighth of May, in Company with Admiral Holbourne, and 15 Sail of the Line; two Frigates, two Bomb-ketches, two Fireships, and 55 Transports, with 5000 Troops on board. The two Highland Regiments were not ready to come with them; nor were the Transports arrived from England; but it was thought they would fail in ten Days after them, under Convoy of five Sail of the Line. Captain Rankin left the Fleet 200 Leagues to the Westward, two Weeks from the Time of sailing.

From a public Print just come to Hand, we have the following Articles, viz.

Madrid, April 12. On the 10th Letters were received here from Lisbon, which caused great Uneasiness. Their Contents were, that one of the rising Grounds, on which this City was built, burst open into a surprising Chasm, out of which gushed Smoke and Flames like those exhaled from a Volcano; that the Sea afterwards swelled in a very extraordinary Manner, and overwhelmed with its Waters, several Feet in Height, the greatest Part of the City, and that the Inhabitants had deserted and abandoned that Part of Lisbon.

This Day we were informed by Letters, bearing Date the first of this Month, that this Kind of Volcano was attended with no Effects that indicated continued or future Eruptions; that the Chasm appeared afterwards to close; that the Waters of the Sea, having covered for two Days the Extent of Ground the Sea overflowed, retired; that the Consecration, which was very great at the Sight of these new Phenomena, was since dissipated, but that the fame could not be said of the Uneasiness Numbers of Persons were afflicted with, on beholding the Calamities to which this dismal Situation might still expose the unhappy Remains of Lisbon.

L O N D O N, April 16.

A Train of Artillery of no small Consequence, and a Number of Troops, are ordered to be assembled at or near Plymouth and Cork, for Embarkation at a short Notice; and are generally believed to be destined for the Mediterranean.

April 23. We hear a strong Squadron will put to Sea with all Expedition to intercept a great Number of French Transports, destined for America.

We hear that eighty Transport-Vessels are taken up at Rochelle and Bourdeaux, destined for North-America.

April 28. By a Letter from Bristol, we have Advice, that the Hawke Privateer, of that Place, James Conner, Captain, has taken a French East-Indianman, homeward-bound, Burthen 1200 Tons, 36 Guns, and 150 Men, after a sharp Engagement of six Hours and a Half, in which the French boarded her twice, but were repulsed by the Bravery of the Captain and Crew. The Indianman parted from her Convoy, in a hard Gale of Wind, but the Day before she was taken. Her Cargo is valued at upwards of 200,000 l. Sterling. As to the Number of killed and wounded on both Sides, the Particulars are not yet known.

On the 10th Instant, the John and Bella of Whitehaven, Capt. Green, with Tobacco, arrived at that Place in eight Days from Havre de Grace, where he was not permitted to go on Shore; but a Priest, who came on board, informed him, that great Preparations were making in all the Ports of France, in order to make an Attack upon Virginia, of which, he said, they did not Doubt but they would make a Conquest, and that then the Rest of our American Possessions would become an easy Prey.

May 12. Letters are arrived in Town from Capt. Foster, of the Antigillian Privateer, giving an Account, that his Ship and Prize were surrendered into his Hands; that soon after he was acquainted that two 74 Gun French Ships of War were Way-laying him and his Prize, of which he took an Opportunity to acquaint Admiral Saunders, who promised to detach a Part of his Squadron to engage the said Ships; and, when these Letters came away, a cannonading was heard off Cadix, supposed to be between Part of Admiral Saunders's Squadron and the two French Ships.

Col. ROBERT JENCKINS HANET,
And
DANIEL DULANT, Esq;

The Honourable

A few Days ago, Mr. LLOYD BUCHANAN, was married, in Baltimore County, to Miss RAEHEL LAWSON, an agreeable and well-accomplish'd young Lady, with a pretty Fortune.

Extract of a Letter from Conococheague, July 18, 1757.

"One Street, who was a Drummer in Captain Ward's Company, and taken in Fort Granville last Year, has made his Escape, in 16 Days, from Fort Duquesne, and arrived at Fort Cumberland the 13th. This Man declares, That the Garrison of Fort Duquesne consisted of between 3 and 400 Men, and some Indians: That about 3 Weeks ago a Reinforcement arrived there of 200 Men from the Mississippi, with a great Quantity of Provision, which they brought in about 12 large Battoes; whereupon there was great Rejoicings at the Fort, and a Discharge of their Cannon and Small-Arms: That about 200 Men, consisting of French and Indians, went from the Fort a few Days after in Pursuit of our Party, who had killed and taken 6 of the Enemy; but two Indian Squaws having been scalped near the Fort, they returned. That several Parties of the Enemy have since been sent to our Frontiers; and particularly one to prevent the Garrison of Fort Cumberland being supplied with Provision, which, from the Report of 3 Prisoners, the Enemy understood they were in great Want of. He says also, that 700 Men more were expected at Fort Duquesne, they being on their March: And that an Attack on Fort Cumberland was designed, with a Train of Artillery, consisting of 6 Cannon, two Mortars, &c. and that it is to be conducted by an Officer from the Mississippi. Street has brought in with him a Negro Man, who came with the Party from the Mississippi, and, on a separate Examination, confirms what Street says."

RICHARD CROXALL.

WANTS

WANTS EMPLOYMENT,

A YOUNG MAN of a fair Character, who has been brought up in the Mercantile Way, and has officiated about three Years in a Public Office in this Province, would be willing to serve as a Store-Keeper or Clerk. Any Gentleman who is in Want of such a Person, may hear of him by applying to Mr. Lancelot Jacques, Merchant, in Annapolis.

THOMAS WILLS,
BARBER and PERUKE-MAKER,
From LONDON,

At his Shop near the Inspection-House in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

UNDERTAKES to serve all Gentlemen, who shall be pleased to favour him with their Employ, in WIGS of all Kinds and Fashions, as undernoted: In which Particular he promises they shall be as good as from London, as he has now purchased a large Stock of English Hairs of all Colours, and as he proposes to keep the best Workmen in his Employ, and to regulate his Fashions by the Mode from London: He makes no Doubt of giving entire Satisfaction, both in the Goodness and Cheapness of his Work, which will be considerably under the London Prices:— Full Dress Wigs of all Kinds from 1 l. 10 s. to 5 l. Currency. Cut Bobs and Ques of all Kinds from 1 l. 10 s. to 5 l. Currency.

The Method he proposes to take in answering his Commissions is, That the Gentlemen forward their Orders to himself, or to any of their Friends living in Baltimore-Town, expressing the Colour and Fashion of the Wig, and Dimensions of the Caul, and the Price about which they would have them, and he will immediately on Receipt thereof, have the Wigs made up, agreeable to the Directions, and sent by the first Opportunity; and on Receipt of the Wigs, the first Cost and other Charges to be paid. And that the Gentlemen may be the better satisfied that Justice is done them in the Prices, if they don't please at Sight, they are not bound to take them from

Their most humble Servant,

THOMAS WILLS.

N. B. The Measure to be taken from the Peak to the Neck, and round the Head; either sent, or the Inches mentioned.

H. CUNLIFFE, Agent for FOSTER
CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.
